Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

1. Since the issuance of document A/52/388 of 24 September 1997, additional information has been received from the Governments of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and New Zealand.

United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

2. In a note verbale dated 26 September 1997, the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations provided additional information to the Secretary-General (see A/52/388, para. 9) that during the financial year 1996/97 the United Kingdom had offered a total of 41 scholarships to students from its Non-Self-Governing Territories, as follows: Anguilla (2); Bermuda (21); British Virgin Islands (1); Cayman Islands (12); Montserrat (3); Saint Helena (1); and Turks and Caicos Islands (1).

New Zealand

3. In a note verbale dated 30 September 1997, the Permanent Mission of New Zealand to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that under the New Zealand Overseas Development Assistance Study Awards Scheme, two scholarships (one at the secondary level and one at the tertiary level) had been awarded in 1997 to students from Tokelau; in addition, six training awards had been given to students from New Caledonia.
